UNLOCK YOUR COMMUNICATION POTENTIAL

A WORKSHOP FOR MANAGERS AND LEADERS

Attention all managers and leaders! Do you want a fresh set of tools and techniques to effectively communicate and influence change with your employees or colleagues?

JOSH FARR

In this workshop, you will learn how to utilize the science and art of communication, including the three pillars of communication for leaders: body language, tone of voice, and word choice. You will be introduced to models of effective communication and learn how to use them to influence your own thoughts and feelings, as well as those of others. By the end of the workshop, you will have the renewed confidence to ask more informed questions and make informed decisions with employees and colleagues.

OUTCOMES:

- Identify the three pillars of communication and understand how they impact your conversations.
- Practice communication skills and receive feedback from peers and instructors.
- Learn the THINK model of effective communication and apply it in real-life scenarios.
- Develop the confidence to ask informed questions and make informed decisions.
- Enhance your rapport-building skills and learn how to have empathy-first conversations.

Register today and take the next step on your journey towards communication mastery!

3 STEPS TO PREPARE FOR THE WORKSHOP

- 1. Reflect on your current communication style: Take some time to think about your current communication habits, what works well for you and what doesn't. Consider what areas you want to improve in and what you hope to achieve from this workshop.
- 2. Set goals for the workshop: Decide what you want to learn and what you hope to achieve by the end of the workshop. Identify the areas where you need the most improvement and set specific goals for yourself.
- 3. (This is a fun one!) Watch some comedy to loosen up: Before diving into the workshop, watch a few comedy shows or movies to see how some of the most creative communicators on the planet use more than just their words to convey a story. Plus, laughter has been known to boost creativity, reduce stress, and improve overall mood, all of which can help you get the most out of the workshop experience!
